

BROOKE E. BARLOW

Master of Social Work Candidate

PERSONAL STATEMENT:

Passionate graduate student with over nine years of experience in child welfare, committed to supporting and empowering families, advocating for vulnerable populations and promoting safety, stability, and long-term well-being within family systems.

CONTACT

bebarlow@m.marywood.edu

EDUCATION

Marywood University
Master of Social Work Candidate
Anticipated Graduation: May 2026

La Salle University- Philadelphia, PA
B.A. In Psychology and Childhood Development
August 2017

Children, Youth and Families Supervisor

Northampton County
October 2022 - Present

- Oversee a unit of three to five employees to ensure services are appropriately and efficiently being provided to families
- Provide direct training to staff in relation to best-practice, documentation, engagement and evaluation/assessment
- Participate in community outreach events such as Career Fairs and Foster Care training events

Children, Youth and Families Caseworker

Northampton County
September 2019 – October 2022

- Develop intervention plans to promote the health, safety, well-being and self-sufficiency of families
- Maintain case records and complete regulatory paperwork that meets Federal, State, and local guidelines
- Establish rapport with clients in order to effectively create and accomplish goals

Children, Youth and Families Caseworker

Allegheny County
April 2018 – September 2019

- Conducted investigations in response to reports of suspected child abuse and/or neglect
- Assessed clients for needs of service
- Facilitated family-centered, strength-based meetings to improve relationships and supports within the family unit

Associate Autistic Support Teacher

Colonial Intermediate Unit 20
August 2016 - May 2018

- Developed and Implemented therapeutic instruction for children with Autism
- Conducted assessments and designed personalized educational programs and activities for each student based on their strengths